

The Advanced Language Arts Program at St. Thomas Aquinas Regional School

Following the example of St. Thomas Aquinas, patron Saint of Catholic schools, our mission is to teach Faith and Reason: That all TRUTH comes from GOD and academic excellence finds its purpose in Him. The ALA program at St. Thomas Aquinas Regional School is a three year program of study beginning in sixth grade for academically capable sixth, seventh, and eighth grade students who are motivated and desire a more rigorous course of study that challenges them to a deeper engagement and understanding of the . The demanding program of study requires a high level of academic performance, discipline, and appropriate maturity for each student participating. Consistent parental support is also required for the student's success.

Key elements of the ALA program include:

Literature

- ALA Students will answer higher level questions in guided discussions
- ALA Assessments will have higher level requirements and will require a deeper level of analysis

Independent Reading

- ALA Students will choose from a prescribed book list
- ALA students will have a menu and rubric designed to challenge students to engage in higher order thinking

Writing

- ALA students will need to demonstrate an advanced mastery of writing techniques through their inventory of ideas, employment of structure, and development of style. This expectation will be built into their rubrics
- ALA students will have an exclusive writing project designed specifically for the Advanced Language Arts Program

Admission Qualifications

Rising sixth, seventh, and eighth grade students must:

- Maintain a 93% average in Aquinas Language Arts and Grammar courses
- Score in the 95th percentile on the Scantron Performance Series Test in the reading and language arts sections
- Pass the mandatory placement test given at Aquinas
- Receive positive recommendation from current Language Arts teacher

Once a student is in the ALA program, they must maintain an 85% or higher in both grade books for all trimesters otherwise the appropriateness of the class for that student will be reconsidered. The appropriateness of the class will also be reconsidered if the teacher and the administration feel that the student is not demonstrating the maturity or dedication that this course requires.

Applicants will be considered based on their placement test, application, and the space available in the class.
